COVER STORY

The Feminine Touch

Marcia J. Garrison, President and owner of Bennett Motor Express, Inc., of McDonough Georgia, is a prime example of what a female can do in the transportation industry. With the "can do" attitude she possesses it's no surprise that Bennett Motor Express, Inc., is so successful. With a background in trucking for most of her life, Mrs. Garrison has gained the knowledge to operate her trucking company in a manner that gains respect and envy from other carriers of the same size.

In September 1974, J.D. Garrison and his wife, Marcia, purchased Bennett Motor Express, Inc., and began operations in McDonough, Georgia. At that time Mrs. Garrison served as the Secretary-Treasurer of the corporation and was involved in the daily routine of operating a trucking company. J.D. Garrison passed away in May 1981 and Mrs. Garrison took over control of the company to carry on what she and J.D. had started. Since Mrs. Garrison has been in total control of the company, it has increased in fleet size, scope of operations, and diversified into other areas of transportation services.

Today Bennett Motor Express, Inc., offers truckload, LTL, Drive-a-Way/Tow-A-Way, car hauling, and expedited service throughout 48 states and also into Canada. This expansion of services is due to Mrs. Garrison's ability to listen to and develop ideas as requested by the many customers of Bennett Motor Express, Inc. She is not reluctant to tread on new territories of transportation service. By surrounding herself with a staff of experts in each new venture of transportation service, Mrs. Garrison has proven the sincere desire to be prepared for the future needs of the shippers.

As a result of her foresight and success in the transportation industry, Mrs. Garrison was named the Venture Magazine Entrepreneur Of The Year for 1988. A distinguished honor such as this award is given to one individual within the whole business world who displays true leadership through the continuing success of the company they own. Mrs. Garrison has stated that she was only the recipient of the award and the real success story lies with the dedicated owner/operators, drivers, agents, regional managers, and corporate office staff which she is proud of.

All those associated with Bennett Motor Express, Inc., are very fortunate to have at the helm a true lady and a proven lady such as Marcia Garrison. She is the key to the success of Bennett.
