

ONE CHOICE MANY SOLUTIONS

“Bennett’s capabilities are extensive and cover a vast array of service options to include specialized multi-axle moves, over-dimensional, and overweight. The precision of their services has placed them as a prime transporter for our various aerospace programs.”

United Launch Alliance

"Safety and quality is our commitment with proven, reliable, and repeatable processes that enables 100 percent mission success."

Dedicated Mission Success Team

- Experienced trained operational team for 100% mission success.
- Certified, experienced company drivers
- Command Center for mission personnel
- Certified mechanics and fully stocked service trucks
- Company tractors & escort vehicles

Space Flight Hardware Transport

- Solid Rocket Boosters, 2nd Stages
- Major-assemblies/sub-assemblies
- Hazmat capability/explosives
- Customized/specialized trailers
- Satellites, payload fairings

Project Management

- Accountability for all ground mission activities
- Detailed route planning: safe havens, overnight security, communications, emergency procedures
- Detailed route surveys with photos
- In-house permit department

Aircraft Engine /Component Transport

- Cross-country or around the corner
- Critical and time-definite moves
- Expert handling of all engine types
- Specialized training and securement
- Wings, fuselages, landing gear

Risk Management

- Emergency protocols
- Experienced risk personnel
- Risk assessment and planning prior to transport
- Monitoring and mitigation during transport
- Focused on safety as #1 priority for public, team, equipment, flight hardware

Heavy Haul/Specialized Capability

- Double drop extendable
- 9-13 axle configurations
- Double neck super 13 axle
- 19 axle configurations
- Dual lane dolly systems

BME Air & Space Division
Headquarters:

1001 Industrial Parkway
McDonough, GA 30253

Phone:
cell:404.780.4585
800.866.5500
770.957.1866
www.bennettig.com

